Director's Notes

- Pete Celender, Mark Scheller, and Herm Sayre – I can't thank you enough for all you did to get us into the auditorium two weeks before opening night so we could still make this show happen despite construction delays. Thank you for all of your dedication to CVTheatre and the auditorium rigging project to make our system safe for our students.
- Thank you to the entire cast & crew - to say it has been a difficult year and rehearsal process would be an understatement. Not having a rehearsal space for 2 months was rough to say the least, but you all persevered and we finally found our way home to make this show happen. As always, all of your hard work and dedication to the process made magic happen and the show come to life in the last two weeks.
- To our CVTheatre alumni – thank you for always being just a text or phone call away to help with anything I need despite the obligations in your life outside of CVTheatre. It's because of you we can continue to provide invaluable opportunities for students and quality productions for the community.
- An enormous thank you to anyone in attendance tonight in support of the arts, CVTheatre, and our incredible students. We are so honored to be one of the first schools to have the opportunity to perform this show and are eternally grateful for those making an effort to support and enjoy the arts.
- CV Thespian Boosters for your continued support of our students from the front of house to backstage and everywhere in between.

A special thank you to the board members for organizing the volunteers and running the group, to Christina Bittner and Emily Marko for helping to publicize, and to Julie Nangle and Chrissy Salerno for costume assistance.

CVTB I am eternally grateful for your dedication to our students and the program. As a parent I know time is precious and we are all juggling many things, so I truly thank you from the bottom of my heart for not just supporting the students and the program, but for helping make it possible for your children to participate.

- Heather Chickis, Jenn Craft, and Brea Lynch – you ladies are amazing! I cannot express how much I appreciate all you have done for me and for all of us in the performing arts department. You are the backbone of all we do – we truly couldn't do it without you!
- Pete, Amber, and the entire facilities & custodial staff – thank you for your understanding of our long hours and always being there to help with anything and everything we need.

CAST

A Special Thank You From the Cast & Crew

We cannot thank our administration enough for their support of the CVTheatre program. We truly appreciate being given the opportunity to still bring the arts to life and perform for our school community. Thank you to all our administration for the support, encouragement, and belief in what the arts bring to our students and the school. This creative outlet is invaluable to the mental and social growth and health of our students.

Congratulations, Seniors!

This group is going to be so hard to say goodbye to – some of you have been in this program since 2014 when you first performed in the Children's Chorus in Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat. I am so thankful to have been a part of your journey for so many years and this will be a bittersweet goodbye for sure.

Cherish this last year and all of the performances and memories. You may have all followed different paths, but your friendships and individual journeys have brought you all together as an irreplaceable part of CVTheatre both onstage and backstage.

Your Senior year is far from over though and you still have multiple productions ahead of you before you move onwards and upwards from CVTheatre and start the next chapter of your life.

Never be tempted to turn time ~Live Where Your Feet Are and enjoy all this world has to offer you.

Thank you for the memories and for your leadership!
